Dear Mr. Praeger:

Thank you very much for your letter of 8 August 1961 and with it your offer to do a book by me.

Until my present job is over, I can make no writing plans. I do hope to write something if I find I have anything that is worthwhile that I can possibly tell. I have had offers from several publishers, but I have remained uncommitted to any publisher and I am maintaining this position until I can determine what writing I can and should do.

I will keep your offer in mind.

Sincerely,

/ s/

STAT

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Thank you very much for your iffy letter. Under the circumstances I can do nothing but continue to hope. I would very much like to publish a book by Allen Dulles because it would be a book by you and because I think it would be fun to be your publisher and editor. I will consider myself in quasi limbo -- publishing-wise -- and I hope that when pressure lessens, it must lessen sometime, we will have a chance for a talk.

Cordially,

/ s/ Fred Praeger
